

IS Degree Audit

Name:

Regional Focus:

International Studies Audit: Minimum of 16 credit hours — in addition to Junior Seminar and Senior Project—must be taken at the 300-level or above.

1. Economics 101

2. a. Economic Theory (two courses):

b. Political Theory (one course):

c. Historical Interpretation (one course):

3. Transnational and Global Issues (two courses):

4. Regional Track Courses (four: at least one of these courses must be a history course, two must be social sciences courses [two may be humanities courses])

5. An approved seminar in Economics, History, or Political Science (i.e., a junior/senior seminar on international affairs)

6. IS600 (2 credit course) to be registered with Chairperson of IS Program in semester preceding registration for IS610

IS610 (taken with first reader of Senior Project)

7. Facility in foreign language (See the Academic Bulletin for specific requirements for each individual language.).

At least a semester abroad is required of all IS majors, typically in their regional track/language area.