Fair Phyllis I Saw

John Farmer (1570-1601)

Lebenslust

Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

*Those who experience life's joy do not remain alone. To be alone is so dull; who can possibly enjoy that?
In an intimate circle of friends, with a heartfelt kiss, to live together is the soul's delight! ¹*

Chiribim Chiribom

Robert Applebaum (b. 1941)

*Chiribim, chiribom... Oh, let us sing, children, a little song together - a simple, happy tune with words that rhyme.
Mama cooks a noodle soup with kashe and with kneidlekh, and when the holiday of Purim comes, we will play with dreidels! Once, our dear rabbi was going down the road when suddenly rain started pouring down. The rabbi shouted to the storm clouds "Stop pouring this water!" So all of the Chassidim came out dry; only the rabbi came out wet. ²*

Ring Forth, Ye Bells from The Sorcerer

Arthur Sullivan (1842-1900)

~Chorus~

Coffee Grows on White Oak Trees

Traditional/arr. Jack Boyd

i thank You God

Elliot Z. Levine (b. 1963)

Le Pont Mirabeau

Lionel Daunais (1901-1982)

*The Seine flows under the Mirabeau bridge and our loves. I must remember that joy always followed pain.
The night falls, the hour strikes, the days pass, I remain. Love passes like this flowing water. Love passes as slowly as life and as violently as hope. Let the night come, the hour strike, the days pass, I remain.
The days pass and the weeks pass. Neither past time nor past loves will return. The Seine flows under the Mirabeau bridge. The night falls, the hour strikes, the days pass, I remain. ³*

Father William from Alice in Wonderland

Irving Gifford Fine (1914-1962)

Douglas Jurs, piano

~Chamber Choir~

The Seal Lullaby

Eric Whitacre (b. 1970)

Dixit Dominus

Baldassare Galuppi (1706-1785)

*I. The Lord said unto my Lord: Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool.
The sceptre of your power the Lord shall send forth from Zion: Rule thou in the midst of your enemies.
The power to rule is with you on the day of your strength, in the splendor of the holy ones:
I have begotten you from the womb before the rising of the day-star.
II. The Lord has sworn an oath, and will not repent of it: You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchisedech. The Lord at your right hand destroys kings on the day of his wrath.
III. He shall judge among the heathen; he shall pile up ruins and scatter skulls on many lands. He shall drink of the torrent in his way; therefore he shall lift up his head. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. ⁴*

Intermission

Finlandia Hymn

Jean Sibelius (1865-1957)

O Finland, look – your day has dawned. Night's threat is banished and already gone, and the morning larks' radiant calls ring up to heaven itself. Morning's light overcomes night's dominion. The light of day dawns, oh motherland.

*O arise, Finland; raise high your head crowned with great memories. O arise, Finland; you have shown the world that in throwing off slavery and having not bent under oppression, your morning comes, motherland.*⁵
