Our Soloist...

Elsie is a graduating senior at Allegheny College. She designed her own European Studies major in order to pursue her passion for French, Spanish, and German. She has studied abroad twice: one semester in Germany and one semester in France, and is Vice President of Phi Sigma Iota, the Foreign Language Honor Society. The other half of her life at Allegheny is spent in the practice rooms working towards her Music Performance minor. She has delighted in learning the intricacies of the violin for the last thirteen years, and hopes to continue playing in orchestras and chamber ensembles in the next chapter of her life. At Allegheny, she is a member of the Select Strings ensemble, and she has had the pleasure of playing with the Greenville Symphony Orchestra for the last three years. Besides participating in foreign-language and music-related activities, Elsie loves co-hosting her "Soundtrack Extravaganza" radio show, watching movies with her friends, reading books in all sorts of languages, sketching, painting, quilting, and being with her family. After Allegheny, she intends to continue her love of languages and cultures pursuing a graduate degree at George Mason University.
