

Summary of Fellowship Programs

Herbert Scoville Jr. Peace Fellowship

A highly competitive 6 to 9 month national fellowship program that provides recent college and graduate school alumni with the funding and opportunity to work with one of more than two dozen participating institutions in Washington, DC, including leading think tanks and advocacy groups focusing on international security and diplomacy issues.

FAQ

Application information

Application deadlines:

Spring semester fellowship--October 1

Fall semester fellowship—January 7

PA House Fellowship Program

A paid 13-week residential program based in the State Capitol in Harrisburg. The competitive program places college juniors and seniors in the offices of Committee Chairmen or House Leaders.

Application deadlines:

Summer term fellowship (May-July): March 1

Spring semester fellowship (Jan.-April): October 1

Fall semester fellowship (Sept.-Dec): May 1

FAQ

Application

Allegheny College will work with students who wish to receive academic credit for this experience.

OH Legislative Fellowship Program

A paid, full time, 13 month position, available to December or May college graduates. Fellows are paid $31,200 annually with an opportunity to earn an additional bonus of up to $2,000 upon completion of the program.

Application deadline: April 1

New York State Assembly Programs

Paid positions from January to May open to college juniors or seniors and graduate students.

UNDERGRADUATE INTERNSHIPS: Application deadline is November 1. Open to current college juniors and seniors. Session runs Jan – May. (Stipend of $6,200 awarded & college credit is an option). Application must be mailed by dept. liaison.

GRADUATE INTERNSHIPS: Application deadline is September 14. Open to students who are currently enrolled in or have recently graduated from a graduate school program. Session runs from January – June. (Stipend of $15,000)

James C. Gaither Junior Fellows program

The James C. Gaither Junior Fellows program, through the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, offers approximately 12-14 students one-year fellowships beginning on August 1 in Washington D.C. Open to graduating college seniors and individuals who have graduated during the past academic year. Students are selected from a pool of nominees nominated by several hundred participating universities and colleges. Fellows work as research assistants to Carnegie's senior scholars in a variety of areas such as Democracy, Conflict, and Governance, U.S. Foreign Policy and Diplomacy, Cyber and Nuclear policy, etc.

The current salary for 2018 is $3,291.67 per month/$39,500 per year.

Allegheny students should contact Dr. Patrick Jackson or Dr. Brian Harward in early fall (before October 1) in order to be nominated and to learn more about the application process.

Please see FAQ for eligibility requirements.