A Bittersweet Farewell to President Mullen

President Mullen finishes his final year with Allegheny College on June 30, 2019. It has been a bittersweet few months of memory-making for many. As we welcome Dean Hilary L. Link, our very first female president, to campus in the next few months, let us remember the importance of this feeling of family, and the Statement of Community. Farewell, President Mullen, and a hearty congratulations to future President Link!

WINTER WARM UP COFFEE HOUR

With almost 60 people in attendance, we enjoyed a well-deserved coffee hour in Carr Hall on Wednesday, January 9, 2019. With coffee, quiche, and pastries catered from our very own local Tarot Bean, it was nice to get away for a moment. We even had to ask them to bring more coffee!

Instead of tradition raffles, Sarah Holt, one of our SAC members, came up with the idea of having employees answer one of three questions, and to have us guess which one they answered. The pile was both funny and relatable. The questions and some of the best answers are below.

1. What is your New Year's Resolution?
2. What's the weirdest thing you've ever eaten?
3. If you were an animal, what would you be and why?

To Not Make any resolutions

Ranch Crickets

Octopus balls

I would be my cat. He has the life!

A wombat because it's the weirdest thing I've ever eaten, but I've resolved not to eat them in 2019.

Duck—Calm on top, working like a nut case under the water

A gator, obviously

Green ants in tall tree in Australia — tastes like citrus

Compromised Locations

Strange things are happening to the Allegheny College campus buildings! Can you figure out what? Each answer is a play on words including a building name. Good luck!

Staff Spotlight Amanda Allen Building Coordinator

Name: Amanda Allen

Department: Communication Arts and Theatre

How long you've worked at Allegheny: 2 Years

What committees are you currently or have you previously been involved in: SAC

What is your personal philosophy? Live every day like it is your last!

Where is your favorite place to be? In nature

What is your favorite thing to do? Snowmobile!!!!!!

What's the weirdest job you've ever had? It's not weird - but a bartender?? Lol!

What's one thing you couldn't live without? My son (family including dogs), snow, and motor sports! Only one thing isn't a fair question.

What is the greatest challenge you have had to overcome in your life thus far? Losing both of my parents just as I was becoming an adult.

What is the one thing you cannot resist? Cookie Dough! And snuggles from my son!

What is your greatest fear? Dying young like my parents

Where is the best place you've traveled to and why? Riviera Maya - because it was just so different than any place I have ever been, and the historical Mayan ruins were fascinating!

What does true leadership mean to you? Not only leading but encouraging others and setting an example worth following.

Which one would you want most - flying cards, robot housekeepers, or moon cities? Robot housekeepers, so I have more time to enjoy life.

What would you do (for a career) if you weren't doing this? Teaching Art - (what my original degree is)

If you could do another job for just one day, what would it be? I like to drive things, so maybe a test driver of some sort!

What would you most like to tell yourself at age 13? Enjoy life while it is simple.

What are your three most overused words/phrases? LOL! I say "like" a lot!

How do you define success? A true meaning of success is a very personal thing that seems to change based on what phase you are at in life. Right now as a young parent, my definition of success is seeing my son grow and becoming a human that is kind and respectable.

What is the best book you have ever read? Well, since most of the books I read these days are for kids - "Little Boo" is about a little pumpkin seed who wants to grow big and scary right now, but has to be patient and learn as he grows, such a sweet little story we are still reading it almost every night! And "The Kissing Hand."

Tell us something that might surprise us about you.

I used to race motocross and was sponsored by a big team.
